HIRAM JOHNSON ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

AFTER NOMINATION FOR PRESIDENT ON REPUBLICAN TICKET

Declares for Direct Presidential Primaries in all States—That the Need Today is for a Revitalized Republican Party—Coming Contest to Decide Permanence of G. O. P.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California tonight announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for president, declaring that "the ensuing contest will determine whether the Republican party shall be the permanent instrument of reaction or whether it shall respond to present day conditions and aspirations."

In tossing his hat into the presidential ring, Senator Johnson declared for direct presidential preference primaries in all the states, said the need today was for a "revitalized Republican party which should be an instrument neither of static reaction nor destructive radicalism," and expressed opposition to the league of nations "and all its subsidiaries."

GERMAN PRINCE HAS COUNTRIES BADLY PUZZLED

Unable to Find Justification for His Expulsion Again

PARIS, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—The allied council of ambassadors which recently reached an agreement to send a warning to Berlin respecting the ex-crown prince before he returned to Germany, seems unable to reach an accord as to action now that Frederick William has arrived in the Fatherland.

The council adjourned until Saturday morning after a lengthy discussion today with the understanding that the members would seek instructions from their governments in the interim.

Great Britain, which took the initiative in notifying the German government that the return of the prince would be regarded as a grave menace, now raises objections to action because of juridical difficulties.

No Justification

It was argued during today's sessions that the allies were no more justified in asking the expulsion of the Hohenzollern heir than of the heirs to the other thrones in the reich.

The presence of former Crown Prince Rupprecht in Bavaria, it was pointed out, is quite as much a menace to the peace as the presence of Frederick William in Silesia or Prussia and the suggestion was made that if the allies engaged in forcing the prince into exile the task would lead them very far, with most doubtful chances of success, unless they resorted to force.

How French View It

The French view is that the return of the crown prince, the threatened return of the ex-emperor and the protection which the allies are demanding for their military control mission in Germany, all connected, forming really three different phases of the same question, that they ought to be treated together and that, unless the Germans are made to understand that the allies are determined that all the clauses of the treaty must be respected, there is no hope of obliging them to execute any part of the treaty.

PEARSON WILL HEAD LAND GRANT COLLEGES

Chicago, Nov. 15.—R. A. Pearson, president of the Iowa Agricultural College was elected president of the association of land grant colleges at the close of the two day session of that organization today.

Other officers chosen were: George L. Christie, Purdue University, vice-president.

J. L. Hills, president of the Vermont Agricultural College, secretary-treasurer.

W. B. Bissel, president of Texas Agricultural college was elected to the executive committee.

Existence Endangered.

"The whole future of the national existence may be endangered by the ill-considered act of a day. I am against the league of nations and all its subsidiaries, membership in which would tend to participation, directly or indirectly, in the league. To take us into the league court or to involve us in the political struggles abroad, inevitably will draw us into the European maelstrom from which we fondly imagined the election of 1920 had delivered us."

"Of course, we would always promote peace and endeavor to prevent war. We would help Europe in any rational way. We would continue to alleviate suffering."

RHINE AND RUHR GREATLY BOTHER STRESEMANN NOW

Many Internal and Foreign Issues are Interlocked

BERLIN, Nov. 15. (A. P.)—The Rhineland and the Ruhr and the numerous internal and foreign issues interlocked with them, together with the immediate economic and political future of Germany, now constitute the outstanding problems confronting the government of Chancellor Stresemann. Although the reichstag is still in session and Berlin still is without its regular complement of newspapers, political circles confidently predict that the Stresemann "Rump" cabinet will not be able to survive the parliamentary attacks awaiting it from the German nationalists and the powerful Socialist party.

Defeat Imminent

A casual survey of the party line suggests that if Chancellor Stresemann attempts to force a vote of confidence when the reichstag convenes he will meet with withering defeat as the only tangible support vouchsafed him in the present situation, accrues from the Clericals and Democrats and the wholly disunited Peoples' party.

Under these conditions there seems to be a strong probability that the chancellor will refuse to go before the reichstag with his "rump" government and will anticipate defeat, either by resigning or enforcing a dissolution of the reichstag and continuing in office at the head of a non-parliamentary government comprising a semi-dictatorial directorate.

Obscurity Reigns

The situation with regard to the government's decisions concerning the Ruhr and the Rhineland remains wholly obscure tonight, although inspired official bulletins and utterances continue to make emphatic declaration of the government's intention to withdraw money subsidies and unemployment, doles, permitting the situation in the occupied zones to lapse into an informal "industrial and economic autonomy."

Great Discontent.

"There is discontent abroad in the land; there is threatened disintegration of the Republican party. The discontent and party difficulties arise not because of popular government but from the lack of it. Two warring philosophies of government in the nation, just as in the state from which I come struggle for mastery. Designate them as you will, the contest between them is age-old. The one ultra-conservative, materialistic, stolidly and stubbornly resisting any claims and vigorously contesting every human advance, invites an ultra-radicalism."

"The other, mindful of existing rights, but recognizing conditions and mankind's gradual progress is idealistic and forward looking."

"It avoids ultra-conservatism and ultra-radicalism. It's the old, old struggle beginning in the early days of man's first achievements and never ending since."

"Reaction and progress must fight it out again in the Republican party in the coming presidential primaries. I question not men now, but their philosophy of government."

Present Day Needs.

"That which obtains at Washington does not fit present day needs. Ultra-conservatism there rules; progressivism challenges it. And the ensuing contest will determine whether the Republican party shall be the permanent instrument of reaction or whether it shall respond to present day conditions and aspirations. We would have a revitalized Republican party; a party representing alone its rank and file, the instrument neither of static reaction nor destructive radicalism. Only such a party with the broad understanding vision and human sympathy of progressivism can solve our pressing domestic problems."

"Not only is there the fundamental and irreconcilable difference in our domestic policy, but a like divergence, perhaps of even greater importance in relation to our foreign affairs. A foreign policy once entered upon may with difficulty be changed. One false move may do what years cannot undo."

Existence Endangered.

"The whole future of the national existence may be endangered by the ill-considered act of a day. I am against the league of nations and all its subsidiaries, membership in which would tend to participation, directly or indirectly, in the league. To take us into the league court or to involve us in the political struggles abroad, inevitably will draw us into the European maelstrom from which we fondly imagined the election of 1920 had delivered us."

"Of course, we would always promote peace and endeavor to prevent war. We would help Europe in any rational way. We would continue to alleviate suffering."

GOVERNOR MCCRAYS EQUITIES DWINDLE

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 15.—(A. P.)—Governor McCray's equities in all the assets which he turned over to a committee several weeks ago for administration for the benefit of his creditors aggregate only $8,727.45, except for two or three items classified as "indefinite" according to a letter sent to creditors by the committee which was made public tonight.

The contents of the letter did not become known until tonight although it was under date of November 10.

A wide variance with the estimate Governor McCray presented when he called his creditors to propose the trust agreement is disclosed by the committee's statement. The Governor had stated that his holdings were worth about $800,000 more than all his liabilities.

POLITICIAN'S WORK TO BE LOOKED INTO

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—(A. P.)—Senator Hefflin, Democrat, Alabama, announced in a formal statement today that he would ask the senate to investigate "the activities of a certain nationally known Republican politician in land frauds and alleged suppression of the reports of the postal inspectors on the same."

He said complaints had reached members of the house and senate from the agriculture sections. Such an inquiry, he predicted would be "far-reaching in its effect and may involve many nationally known men now prominent in the councils of the government."

He refused to mention any names.

COLLINSVILLE BANK ROBBED OF BIG SUM

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.—Three men are being held here by police tonight in connection with the robbery this morning of a $14,464 payroll of the Consolidated Coal company of Collinsville, Ill. The men were seized following discovery of a mud-covered automobile with a suspicious license plate in East St. Louis this afternoon. Efforts to identify the trio so far have failed.

THE FARM A REAL HOME IS REASON FOR THE LIFE OF GRANGE

Secretary Wallace followed the reading of President Coolidge's statement with a discussion of the work of the department of agriculture, describing the development of an adequate marketing service, affording prompt world news of crop prospects and production and explained the aid given the farmer's co-operative marketing movement.

"I know that agricultural conditions are improving," said Secretary Wallace. "There is a better market situation for many farm products and increased buying power of the farmers' dollar. Most of the agricultural states have produced large crops and most of the states show increased agricultural production this year. Satisfactory as these dawning glimpses of a better day for agriculture are, especially by those who have benefited by them, the improvement in conditions is far from complete or sufficient to put agriculture again on an equality with other American industries. These improvements do not help in some places nor do they relieve the producers of some crops whose prices are far below the cost of production."

Grange Influence

"The progressive conservatism of the Grange and its sensible way of considering farm problems and presenting farm needs has given it a position of influence in the nation and has led those in positions of responsibility to listen to the views of the Grange with consideration and respect."

Des Moines Thinks G. O. P. Convention Should Come There

Matter Will Not be Decided Until After December 11

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Four cities, Chicago, Cleveland, Des Moines and San Francisco, today entered the lists today for the Republican national convention of 1924 by submitting invitations to a sub-committee of the Republican national committee, Denver, which had been reported as a contender, did not extend an invitation but is not barred from doing so as the full committee will not meet until December 11 to make a final choice and select a date for the convention, probably early next June.

Pledges of expenses, non-profiteering hotel and restaurant charges, ample auditoriums and other facilities were made in behalf of all the contending cities. These and other factors, political, financial, psychological, geographical and climatic, were argued for two hours before the sub-committee headed by David Mulvane, national committeeman for Kansas.

Now After Facts

Mr. Mulvane announced that the sub-committee was sitting as a fact finding body, to summarize the various offers and, present them to the full meeting without recommendation. Hotel rates promise to be a factor in the contest as a result of complaints of overcharging at the 1920 convention.

Presidential candidacies also promise to be another potent factor in the ultimate decision. Some national committeemen individually after today's hearings said that San Francisco's chances would be affected if Senator Johnson should declare himself a candidate because some committeemen might not care to have the convention awarded to the senator's home city after such an announcement.

Des Moines Bid

Des Moines spokesmen stressed the psychology of holding the convention in the heart of agricultural region and on the Iowa agricultural fair grounds. Doubt as to the suitability of the fair grounds for convention purposes and the comparatively limited hotel capacity at Des Moines were said to mitigate that city's chances of winning the convention, while the distance to San Francisco was a drawback which some committeemen said appeared to leave the race, to a considerable extent between Chicago and Cleveland.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE LOSES COURT FIGHT

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 15.—The New York Anti-Saloon League today lost its second court battle against being declared a political combination and under obligation to file with the secretary of state a statement of its receipts and expenditures in connection with the primary and general state election campaigns of 1922. The appellate division of the supreme court unanimously ruled that the league, within the meaning of the election law, was a political combination and should be made to file a statement of campaign receipts and disbursements.

METHODIST BISHOP RENEWS PLEA FOR RUSSIAN SOVIETS

Board of Bishops Refer the Matter to Committee

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Renewing his plea for toleration toward the Russian Soviet government and financial aid for its church, the Greek Orthodox Catholic Bishop, Edgar Blake, of Paris today appeared before the Methodist Episcopal board of bishops and told what had influenced him to "become not a Bolshevik, nor a reactionary, but a little of each."

Authorized by the board to accompany a mission of investigation into Russia last May, Bishop Blake was recalled after he had attended the All-Russian ecclesiastical conference of the soviet church and there had pledged himself with Bishop John L. Nuelsen of the Zurich Area, to raise $51,000 for the education of the Greek Catholic clergy.

Russia Described.

He appeared before the board today to describe Russia as he had found it, and ended with a plea that the Methodist Episcopal church contribute as an organization to the fund he had pledged, with Bishop Nuelsen as an individual.

At the close of the address the bishops, in semi-annual conference discussed for several hours the problem Bishop Blake had raised. He was asked to make a more detailed report of the situation tomorrow after which a committee of five, headed by Bishop W. F. McDowell of Washington, D. C., would recommend the attitude to be adopted by the board.

The board approved the plan formulated by Commissioner of the Methodist Episcopal church and the M. E. Church, South, to unite as a single denomination and thus close the breach the slavery question caused before the Civil War.

MME. GALLI-CURCI DISLIKES "BOSSING"

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Madame Galli-Curci was treated by the management of the Chicago Civic Opera company in a manner she would not use towards her cook, the prima donna declared here tonight in passing thru the city en route east.

"It was like taking me by the neck," she said, illustrating with thumb and forefinger, "putting me in a hole and telling me to stay there. I won't tolerate that."

Not so much the fact that the company would not permit her to make her debut here this year in the opera she wanted, angered the singer, she said, as the manner in which she was "bossed."

"There must be no boss in my work except the work itself," she said.

The selection of the opening opera now is a secondary matter, Madame Galli-Curci declared, saying that even if her request that she be permitted to open her season in "Dionysus" and not "Lakme" as the company insisted were granted, she would not change her decision to sever connections with Chicago opera after the present season.

FOUR DEAD AS RESULT RIVAL SUITORS FIGHT

Murders were Committed at Periods During One Day

KELLIHER, Minn., Nov. 15.—Argument over a 15 year old girl by two rival suitors resulted in a quadruple murder near this village today. Leonard Portano, considered in this vicinity as a "bad man," the alleged murderer has taken to the woods after the murders. The girl is Myrtle Sanders, 15 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders, victims of the desperado.

Four persons were killed by Leonard Portano, at Kelliher, 50 miles north of Bemidji today.

The dead:

Oscar Timmey, 33 farmer living eight miles north of this city.

John Sanders, 60, farmer.

Mrs. John Sanders, 60, his wife.

J. A. Wilson, 45, marshal at Kelliher, superintendent of the water and light plant there and a deputy sheriff.

Killed During Day

Portano killed the four persons at different times during the day, from morning until afternoon after wounding Timmey during an altercation early today with a revolver.

After killing the four people, Portano went to his cabin, wrote a confession listing the names of the dead, and fled into the north woods.

The countryside was aroused immediately upon notification of the killings and a posse began gathering at Kelliher. Sheriff Julius R. Johnson of Beltrami county is on his way to Kelliher to take charge of the posse which, it was stated tonight will not leave until morning as it is held nothing could be accomplished in the woods during the darkness.

Portano's age is said to be between 30 and 35.

Portano and Timmey argued over the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanders early this morning. Portano is said to have drawn a gun and slightly wounded Timmey who immediately set out for the village of Kelliher, a few miles distant to have his wounds dressed and to notify the sheriff.

During the interval Portano is believed to have gone to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanders about eight miles north of here, and shot and killed Mrs. Sanders. Leaving the house, Portano went down the road where he met Mr. Sanders, whom he took to a nearby cabin, tied him to the bed post and shot off his head.

Marshal Wilson who was notified by Timmey of the argument he had with Portano, was on his way to Kelliher to apprehend Portano. The murderer met the marshal near the village and killed him. It is believed that it was near noon when this murder occurred.

Not far from where Wilson was killed, Portano met Timmey, who apparently was on his way to the village to see what was being done about the arrest of Portano or drawing a gun on him. Portano met him on the road and killed him instantly it is believed.

THREE SUSPECTS IN BANK ROBBERY TAKEN

HARRISBURG, Ill., Nov. 15.—A woman whose identity Sheriff John Small has refused to reveal gave him the clue which resulted in the arrest last night of three men suspected of the robbery of the Burr Prairie State bank of $79,000 in cash and securities Monday night the sheriff said tonight.

After receiving the tip, Deputy Sheriff Royce Cline hurried to Eldorado, a few miles north of here, and with the help of police arrested Orville Sample who was found in a large touring car yesterday afternoon. Sample was placed in jail here.

Later two men who were identified as John Sanders, Chicago and G. E. Oyster, of Taylorville, Ill., were captured.

Officers tonight are continuing their efforts to locate the securities and cash which made up the Burr Prairie loot.

CONSPIRACY DENIED

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Denial of a conspiracy on the part of the officials of the Pennsylvania railroad to "break" the brotherhood of railway clerks and station employees was made in an answer filed in the federal court today by counsel for the railroad to a petition of the brotherhood seeking an injunction to prevent the company from disregarding orders of the United States railroad labor board.

GREAT BRITAIN IS FACING A GENERAL FORCED ELECTION

Parliament to be Dissolved—Premier Baldwin Explains Tariff Plans and Reasons for Precipitating a Vote—Lloyd George Criticizes Government—Offers Better Remedy

LONDON, Nov. 5.—(A.P.)—The house of commons tonight after a debate in which the prime minister and Mr. Lloyd George took part and much heckling and derisive remarks were indulged in, rejected the labor motion of censure introduced by J. Ramsey MacDonald, by a vote of 295 to 190, amid ministerial cheers. The government thus maintained its parliamentary majority and cleared for formal dissolution tomorrow when the struggle, which already bears evidence of being an exceptionally determined character, will be transferred from the parliament to the constituencies.

Ministers and members alike will distribute themselves all over the country where a great oratorical campaign is already under full swing.

Premier Baldwin today told the commons about his tariff plans and the reasons for precipitating a general election. He was specific regarding only what he proposes to exclude from taxation, that is, wheat, flour and meat including mutton and bacon and cheese, butter and eggs.

Reserves Free Hand

For everything else the prime minister reserves "a perfectly free hand for later decision. On what articles he proposes to raise the tariffs he awaits the advice of a committee appointed to consider the subject."

His plea of necessity for protection was based largely on the argument that in the matter of tariff every nation's hand is against Great Britain. All other governments especially the United States, Italy and Spain had greatly increased tariffs since the war. On foreign affairs, which under the excitement of the impending campaign are almost forgotten, Mr. Baldwin said the allies had been informed that the British people could not continue indefinitely to maintain the spirit necessary for co-operation under the existing situation and he deplored the failure to accomplish anything with American co-operation.

Lloyd George replied briefly, criticizing the government's policy in calling a general election. He maintained that a settlement in Europe would be a better remedy for unemployment than tariffs and regretted that the government had dropped international negotiations just when the United States had joined with Great Britain in them.

DELEGATES NAMED TO PAN-AMERICAN UNION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—(A. P.)—The United States and two other governments today communicated to the Pan-American Union the names of their representatives on the international commission of jurists in accordance with action taken by the Pan-American conference at Santiago last April. The appointments announced are:

For Guatemala, Senor Don Antonio Batres and Dr. Jose Matos; for Panama, Dr. Eusebio A. Morales; and Dr. Hario F. Alfaro; for the United States, Dr. James Brown Scott of this city, and Professor Jesse S. Reeves, of the University of Michigan.

The commission, which is to prepare a code of private and public international law and frame rules of guidance for the American states in legal proceedings between them will meet in Rio De Janeiro in 1925.

CHARGES WIFE BEATING

He asserted that once he had found Mortimer beating Mrs. Mortimer in the Drake Hotel in Chicago and that on other occasions he had seen "evidences" of similar attacks.

Forbes said "Mortimer had found him and Mrs. Mortimer in an apartment at the Wardman Park Inn in this city, but declared that the door was wide open." At another place he said he probably was a "bit indiscreet" in permitting Mortimer, who testified that he then was seeking hospital contracts to accompany him on official inspection trips around the country in 1922.

PRIVATE LIFE OF FORMER VET HEAD IS AIRED

Searching Inquiry is Conducted Before Committee

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—(A. P.)—Searching inquiry into the official and private life of Charles H. Forbes was made today by John F. O'Ryan, general counsel for the senate veterans' committee, as the former director of the Veterans' Bureau sat for six hours facing his accusers from the witness chair in the crowded hearing room. The cross-examination was unfinished when adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

Before beginning his questioning, O'Ryan, apparently stirred by Forbes' charges of improper conduct by committee counsel, stated that he expected "to prove convincingly the whole truth of Mortimer's charge that Colonel Forbes was one of the gang of conspirators who were tied together neck and jowl to defraud the government."

He added that he expected further "to show that this criminal conduct was in consonance with his previous life record."

Questions Asked

Then insistently and rather sharply at times, O'Ryan put question after question to Forbes about his meetings with officers of companies which sold contracts for veterans' hospitals; his alleged relations with Mrs. Elias H. Mortimer, wife of Forbes' principal accuser; the divorce obtained from his recently by Mrs. Kate Forbes and about charges of drinking parties in Washington and other places.

To all the charges of improper official or private conduct and of drinking and carousing, Forbes entered specific denials.

Time and again, O'Ryan asked him to swear to his answers but he remained unshaken and appeared to be calmer than he was during his direct examination. As on yesterday and the day before he repeatedly contradicted testimony of Mortimer whom he characterized as a "wife beater."

A THOUGHT

Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.—Prov. 26:4.

Full off we see cold wisdom
waiting on superfluous folly.—
Shakespeare.

The widening of the West
State street pavement is a matter
for which the property owners
on the west side street do not serve credit. They have agreed to pay for the additional pavement
and contented to the removal of the trees along the boulevard.
This is only another instance of the co-operation of citizens in the city's interest which has been steadily increasing
for the past few days.

Law enforcement should have more emphasis in an educational way in America. It might prove beneficial for the public schools to adopt some means of stressing
this matter in the classrooms.
If the children of the nation are taught to respect its laws, no one need fear for the future of its government. Whether a law is good or bad is a question for the ballot to settle; but whether it shall be enforced or remain a dead letter is another matter,
and one of vital importance.
Every failure to adequately enforce law is a thorn in the side of good government, and every officer who, it matters not from what motive, neglects to enforce the law is not in harmony with the spirit of the government.

THE PENDULUM

SWINGS
The pendulum of sentiment in Germany seems to be swinging back toward monarchy. With the threatened return of the kaiser, and several members of the royal family already occupying their German estates, it would seem that the German people have reached the beginning of another stage in collapse of their pre-war organization and government. However, it may be a change by which the former efficiency and power of the nation will be restored.

Royalty will find a different Germany than that which expelled
it in the closing days of the war,
and it is doubtful whether, if restored to power, the junkers and royal princes would be able to bring the people under the old time rule of blood and iron. It is also doubtful whether France would permit such an attempt without a military struggle.

However far the pendulum may swing toward monarchy, it is evident that America does not care.
Germany is no longer a menace
to the world, though it is probable that she could rise to that position in a few years, if the old order were restored, and that she would do, inspired by her rulers.
German royalty can have no love for the nations that caused their downfall, and the German industrialist will not hesitate to seek revenge for the ruin which the steady demand for reparations and his stubborn resistance, has brought upon his interests.

The United States and England,
as well as other nations of the world, should watch carefully developments in Germany in these days, as what may be done there may become of vital importance in the future. The policy of noninterference announced by the Washington government is a wise
one, but a cautious watching of the situation by American diplomats would not be amiss.

THE REFEREE

By Albert Apple

$100,000

Germany has printed marks
totaling into hundreds of quadrillions. The whole batch of them are worth about $100,000 in American money, and this includes every mark in the world.

In flooding the market with this phony money, Germany has collected a fabulous sum from the people who bought the marks hoping they'd "come back." Some Wall Street bankers estimated that Americans alone have lost (and Germans won) about three and a half billion dollars. The people who bought marks are going to pay a large part of the German indemnity, yes?

Three hundred times a day, an apparently new idea occurs to some American. Applications for patents average 9,000 a month.
This shows that brains are active in our young nation, though the 9,000 include applications for trade-marks, prints and labels, as well as patents for new inventions.
Americans are tremendous successes in science. In other pursuits, we grope rather blindly, especially the spiritual side of existence.

Minority.
More than a third of the present members of the United States Senate got into office by a minority vote. For instance, 34 senators received an average of only one-fourth of the votes that would have been cast in their states if every person entitled to vote had really voted.

Government by minority is the penalty for citizens' failure to vote.
1907
Just 16 years ago Byron R. Newton, New York reporter wrote an interview with A. H. Herring predicting that heavier-than-air machines would be constructed capable of a speed of 135 miles an hour. The city editor tenderly threw the interview into the waste basket and razed the reporter for trying to get into print
with such visionary tommyrot.

Recently an airplane traveled twice that fast.

Flying.
Wandering aviators, joy riders
and circus-stunt flyers are seriously hindering the progress of aviation, warns Captain E. S.
Land, U. S. N. His attitude apparently is that flying is a serious business, not a sport or recreation.

Speed craze is flying's real enemy. What's needed is a foolproof, safe, cheap plane—not one that'll make 1,000 miles an hour.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

PURE GOLD

BY BERTON BRALEY

IN absence of loquacity
Some people find sagacity.
They think the silent person is a bird
With wisdom of immensity
Because of his propensity
To sit and think and never say a word.

BEHIND that quiet front of him
And in each nod and grunt of him
They fancy there is knowledge erudite.
And now and then you find, it's true,
He has a clever mind, it's true,
And those who think him wise have got it right!

BUT silence oft has back of it
Not thought—but utter lack of it;
That ponderous appearance is a stall.
That Jovian impassivity,
Hides mental inactivity,
There's nothing going back there at all!

STILL, if that individual
Can dope it out to kid you all,
To thinking there's a brain beneath his hat;
If he can only stay with it,
And somehow get away with it,
The silent lad is pretty wise at that!

ELI BRIDGE COMPANY
EMPLOYERS HONORED

Banquet Given Last Night by Employees of Eli Bridge Company
For Officers of the Company—
Dr. R. V. Brokaw is Speaker.

A most enjoyable affair was held at the Peacock Inn in the blue room last evening, when 37
guests sat down to an elaborate banquet at 6:30 o'clock, given by the employees of the Eli Bridge Company in honor of Mr. and Mrs.
W. E. Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs.
Lee Sullivan. W. E. Sullivan is the president of the company and Lee Sullivan the secretary and treasurer, and the affair was given in evidence of the esteem in which the employees hold their officers,
and in appreciation of the kindly spirit which exists between them.

At the conclusion of the banquet, an evening's program was opened by group singing led by Ben Roodhouse, with Willard
Wessner at the piano, the Kiwanis song books being used. F. M.
Crabtree followed in a talk on
"Why We Are Here," in which he expressed the appreciation felt
by the men for the spirit of brotherhood existing between them and the pleasure it gave the employees to give this banquet in honor of their employers. A delightful reading was given by Mrs.
Ben Roodhouse, "Sally Ann's Experiences," from "Aunt Jane of Kentucky." Dr. R. V. Brokaw
then gave the address of the evening, on the subject "Evolution of Life," which he prefaced with remarks commending both the employers and employees of the Eli Bridge company for the existing good feeling and appreciation of one another. He congratulated the firm on the well lighted building, well ventilated and comfortable surroundings furnished the men, and the co-operative interest
in turning out satisfactory work.

He then expressed himself in part
as follows:
"A man in development represents four stages of evolution;
first, self discovery; second self development; third, self mastery, and fourth, self projection. He spoke of the development of personality, the relation of one to another, and how by putting ones self into ones work, not only is the work made better but the highest character, and individuality and ideal personality are developed."

Dr. Brokaw interspersed his remarks with humorous stories to illustrate his point and his talk was much appreciated by the company present.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs.
Sullivan as honor guests, Mrs. I.
V. Page, of Roodhouse, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sullivan was present at the banquet.

The affair, which was the second annual banquet by the employees for their employers, was admirably arranged not only as to plan and execution, and was in charge of F. M. Crabtree, chairman, assisted by Robert March,
Frank Goodall, Charles Baisley,
Jesse Smith and Ben O. Roodhouse.

EVANGELIST MADE
TALK ABOUT JESUS

Dr. H. H. Peters Discussed "The Joy of Jesus" at Central Christian Church Last Night—Large Audience Present

The evangelistic services at Central Christian church continue to be largely attended and the interest is growing with each night.
Last night Dr. Peters discussed
"The Joy of Jesus," and tonight
he will have as his theme, "The Sorrow of Jesus." Mr. Hackleman sang last night with especial feeling "O Cling to the Bible, My Boy," and tonight Miss Lois Harney will sing a solo.

A few sentences from Dr.
Peters' address are given below:
"Jesus was a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief, but he was a man of joy and familiar with rejoicing. There is no conflict between the man of joy and the man of sorrow. Joy and sorrow are not antagonistic. They both come from the same capacity for feeling. A man of deep joy
may be a man of deep sorrow.

"Jesus was so glad in communion with the Father on the Mount of Transfiguration that His face did shine as the sun. He was so broken hearted in Gethsemane that His brow was wet with the sweat of blood. Transfiguration and Gethsemane are part of one's experience.

"The book that reveals Jesus is the most joyous book in the world. It begins with the creation of the world. It ends with its complete redemption. It is a book of hope and optimism. It is a sympathy of created joy.

"The New Testament opens with a song of joy over the birth of Jesus and ends with a multitude, which no man could number, singing the halleluiah chorus.
It begins with Christmas and ends
with eternal rejoicing.

"Christianity is a religion of songs. There are three great missionary religions, "Mohammedanism," "Buddhism," and "Christianity." The first has no song worth mentioning. The second is endeavoring to compete with Christianity by copying its songs.
Christianity will be triumphant because it sings. It will sing its way to victory.

"But what is the foundation of this rejoicing of Jesus? It is found in at least four things:
1. Trust in God as Father; 2.
Biblical hope for the future;
3. Consciousness of doing the will of God; 4. The knowledge that one is doing an abiding service for man."

MISSION INSTITUTE
HELD AT GRACE CHURCH

Miss Edith Bell, Field Representative of National Organization of W. F. M. S. Conducts Missionary Institute Here

An all day missionary institute was held at Grace church with Miss Edith Bell, field representative of the national organization of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society as the chief instructor.

Many members availed themselves of the opportunity to hear Miss Bell, and all the local churches of the district were represented, and Ebenezer church by Miss Ella Blackburn and the Point church or Wesley Chapel by Mrs. John Leach.

The morning session which began at 9:30 was particularly helpful in the suggestions given out for programs for bettering missionary meetings, and the pointing out the things that interfered with progressive activities.

The afternoon was spent in the methods of getting the best results from the use of the three study books used as a basis for foreign missionary study, and Miss Bell presented her subject in a most entertaining and interesting and helpful manner. The book for adults is "Creative Forces in Japan," for girls, "Women and the Leaven of Japan,"
and for the children, "The Honorable Japanese Fan."

SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO HAVE INSTITUTE HERE

One of Five State Gatherings to be Held in This City Next Tuesday and Wednesday — Is For Officers, Teachers and Workers.

C. L. DePew, secretary of the Morgan County Sunday School association, has announced an institute to be held here next Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 20 and 21, for Sunday school officers, teachers and workers. The sessions will be held at Northminster church.

The institute to be held here is one of five which are to be held in Illinois during the present month. George N. Burnie, secretary of the State Sunday school association, is in general charge of the institutes and will be here both days.

About sixty Sunday school officers, teachers and workers will attend from various communities in the west central division, which comprises a dozen or more counties.

Mr. DePew has sent out the following letter to superintendents announcing the institute:

My Dear Superintendent:
Next Tuesday and Wednesday, November 20 and 21, the Sunday school folks of Morgan county will have an unusual opportunity to secure a great fund of valuable information and help for their work. An institute will be held in Northminster Presbyterian church these two days, which will be led by five trained and experienced Sunday school workers. They will present in a plain practical manner some of the most effective and helpful plans for Sunday school development.

I have known and worked with most of these leaders for some time, and know the value of the work they are doing, hence, I am writing you to urge upon your good people the necessity of a large number of them attending this institute. There will be a registration fee of $1.00 to meet expenses of the institute. Jacksonville homes will entertain free for lodging and breakfast.

There will be a fine exhibit of good books and materials for Sunday school use, under the direction of an experienced Sunday school teacher and field worker. Altogether this makes a most unusual opportunity to secure needed help, and I am earnestly appealing to you to have your school largely represented at the meeting.

Sincerely yours,
Clarence L. DePew,
Leon C. Taylor, who was recently appointed superintendent of the Young People's Division of the state association, will be in charge of the young people's division. Miss Pearl L. Weaver, the superintendent of the children's division of the state association will conduct the children's department of the institute.

Mrs. William H. Deitz of Chicago will have charge of the book department. She has had twenty-five years experience in Sunday school literature and is a recognized leader in primary work in the Sunday school. Mrs. A. B. Dennis of Danville, secretary of the Vermillion County Sunday School association, will be in charge of the adult division.

JUDGE N. L. JONES, DEMOCRAT, ASKS GOVERNOR'S SEAT

Announcement Made Before Group of Democratic Leaders

CARROLLTON, Ill., Nov. 15.—Norman L. Jones, local circuit judge, has formally announced himself as a Democratic candidate for governor.

Judge Jones has set forth a declaration of principles on which he will make his campaign:

Promises Law Enforcement

It includes:

- 1—Rigid enforcement of all laws.
- 2—Building of hard roads from automobile license fees rather than direct property taxation.
- 3—Payment of interest on public funds into the public treasury.
- 4—Enactment of legislation to disclose all arrangements of the deposit and use of public funds.
- 5—Rigid economy in public service.

The announcement of Judge Jones' candidacy was made before a group of Democratic party leaders.

"I favor the enforcement of our laws, not merely the laws we like, but all laws," Judge Jones said. "The chief executive has no discretion in the enforcement of laws."

Stand on Good Roads.

"I pledge the people that if I am elected I will interpret a favorable vote upon the proposed $100,000,000 bond issue as meaning that they have declared for the continued building of hard roads as fast as the automobile license funds will warrant and that they do not favor the imposition of a direct tax upon their property for such purpose. I further pledge myself not to issue any bonds, at any time, when it is not apparent that they can ultimately be paid out of such fund."

"Legislation ought to be enacted that will give the legislature and chief executive the right to compel a disclosure of all arrangements respecting the deposit and use of public funds."

fering, clothe the naked, feed the hungry, but we would ever be the sole judge of our own actions, the arbiter of our own destiny. Our country, the greatest on earth should have its own foreign policy, thoroughly understood by our people, frankly proclaimed.

"Preserving our country as it is, we preserve the world's greatest asset, civilization's highest promise. Our timid, vacillating and contradictory positions demand that America's foreign policy again be decided by the whole people who must themselves at whatever cost maintain it. This time the decision should be clear, so definite and certain that no casuistry, no specious plea, no indirection can distort it."

Basis of Appeal.

"Upon these as fundamentals, amplifying and expressing details hereafter, to the men and women who constitute America's free citizenship, I will make my appeal. In every state the contest will be waged. In those states where the voters may express their preference the issue can be definitely decided, and I hope, all candidates will participate in the presidential preference primaries including California and cheerfully acquiesce in the result."

"No man who aspires to the highest office in the gift of the American people should shrink from a verdict by those who seek to serve and equally, none is entitled to the presidency whom the people do not want."

BOK PEACE PRIZE OFFER GETS REPLY FROM MANY LANDS

Announcement of Winner Made Probably About January 1

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—There are 22,165 persons in the world who believe they know how to end wars and they are scattered in twenty-two different nations. It was disclosed at midnight tonight when the American Peace Award announced the close of the contest for the $100,000 prize offered by Edward W. Bok. Men and women from widely varying walks of life submitted remedies which they believed would end conflicts between nations.

Members of the policy committee estimated that at least one-fourth of the entrants were women, as that number was indicated in the requests for contest conditions issued shortly after the prize was announced. The contestants, however, and their cities and countries will not be known until an award has been made.

Many Participants.

Twenty-one foreign countries are represented as indicated by the postmarks on plans received in spite of the fact that the policy committee published far and wide the fact that Americans only were eligible.

Plans have been coming in steadily since early last July when Mr. Bok announced his prize for the best practicable plan by which the United States may co-operate with other nations to achieve and preserve the peace of the world.

Conditions of the award were distributed to 200,000 individuals, endorsed at numerous conventions and circulated by a co-operating council of 88 national associations with a combined membership of 43,000,000.

Root Heads Jury.

The jury award of which Elihu Root is chairman has been at work a month in analyzing the plans. The jury expects to announce the winner by January 1.

The award policy committee, whose members include John W. Davis, Nathan L. Miller, former governor of New York, Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, Mrs. Ogden Reid, Mrs. Frank D. Roosevelt, Henry L. Stimson, Melville E. Stone and Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip, will conduct a referendum in January, in which will be obtained a nation-wide "yes" or "no" vote on the selected plan.

TAXATION POLICY OF REPUBLICANS IS HIT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The first broadside attack on the taxation policy of Republican organization leaders in congress was madetonight by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, who declared that reduction of the present tax burden was not only an economic but a moral necessity.

If the present plan of delaying such a reduction is carried out, he said, in a formal statement, it may prove a hazardous enterprise for congress to face its constituency next year at the polls. For the tax payer, he asserted, is showing a strong inclination "to turn upon his torturer."

Despite these signs of the times, however, the senator added, it is certain that unless those favoring reduction go to work

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Mid-western farmers and manufacturers will discuss mutual problems and adopt remedies at a two-day convention to be held here next January 14 and 15, it was announced here today. Preliminary arrangements for the meeting were made here today when 36 leaders of the two industries met at the Union League club. Included in this group were farmers from Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa, Alabama, Texas, Mississippi and Minnesota. Tired of Talk Farmers at this meeting were quoted as declaring there had been enough talk of bankruptcy and pauperism in their ranks, that they did not want to tell their troubles but believed there were certain problems on which agriculture and industry could meet on common ground and adopt remedies mutually advantageous. Among the matters suggested for the coming convention which will be held under the direction of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, will be production, taxation, immigration as applying to a sufficient supply of help on farms and a proper distribution of immigrants so that they will not all go to large cities, freight rates and co-operative marketing. Findlay, O., Nov. 15.—The board of directors of the Illinois Pipe Line Co., today declared a semi-annual dividend of $3.00 a share to stockholders on record Nov. 30, payable Dec. 31. PRESENCE OF CROWN PRINCE A PROBLEM

Cologne, Nov. 15. (A. P.)—The former crown prince says the Volks Zeitung, the leading Catholic journal in the Rhineland, is no menace to the present republican form of government.

The newspaper adds that it believes Frederick William never will become a candidate or a rallying point for the monarchists. It is inclined, on the other hand, to view him as an element which in all probability will constitute a distributing factor in the monarchist ranks, in that it will keep them divided.

THREE SIGNIFICANT FACTS ON DEADLOCK

DUESELDORF, Nov. 15.—(A. P.)—Three significant facts stand out from the mass of rumors and speculation current in the Rhineland. The first is the apparently hopeless deadlock of the negotiations between the French economic mission and the Ruhr industrialists.

The second is that notice of dismissal has been served upon all the minor office staffs by the mine owners association by Nov. 30, on the ground that failure of the negotiations with the French moves all hope of profitable operation. The third is the rumors reached at a meeting at Cologne of the final representatives in all the municipal centers in the occupied territory, that since Berlin announces it will give no further help, no further taxes or other revenues will be paid to the reich treasury from the Rhineland.

GRAND JURY FINISHES WORK OF THE TERM

Returned True Bills in a Number of Cases and Makes Report on Jail

The work of the grand jury of the November term of the circuit court was concluded and its report made before Judge E. S. Smith, shortly after court convened yesterday morning. The true bills returned are as follows:

Ladies Aid society of Listerberry Christian church will hold a market at Dorwart's Saturday, Nov. 17, at 10 o'clock.

Russell Filger, failure to support child.
Riley Buchanan, passing a fictitious check.
Roy Pike, assault with intent to commit rape.

The following report was made by the committee appointed from the grand jury to make an inspection of the county jail:

Edward Blue and Edward Greenup, burglary and larceny. These defendants are charged with entering the basement of the Gilbert drug store on West State street and stealing a quantity of candy.

Joe Barton, burglary and larceny. Barton is accused of entering the Smith Bakery on West State street.

William Stalls, murder. Stalls shot Frank Houston during an argument here several months ago and has been in jail since. There have been rumors recently that he may plead guilty to the charge.

Committee Reports
The committee from the grand jury appointed to make an inspection of the county jail reported as follows:

"We, the grand jury of Morgan county in session during the November term of court did on Nov. 14, 1923, visit the county jail and found it in as good condition as could be expected with the present building.

"We would make the following recommendations:

"That the walls and ceilings of the main cell rooms and corridor be brightened up by the application of white paint and providing for drainage of water that now accumulates in the basement from every rain.

"We found 24 prisoners confined in the jail; 20 men and 4 women; 15 white and 9 colored prisoners. Apparently they were being well provided for.

"Respectfully submitted,
J. A. Paschall, chairman,
J. K. Baxter and Charles W. Lowe, committee."

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

The following tribute to the work of the Red Cross is of more than usual interest to the people of this community by reason of the fact that it was written by a young man who has achieved great success in the field of writers in the National Magazine. Kindly read the opinion of Joseph A. Becker, A. M., who still regards Jacksonville as his home.

Red Cross Back to Its Fundamental Purpose

Ever since the World War, many of the great welfare organizations have been troubled with the problem of returning to a satisfactory peace time basis. Perhaps the organization which has had the most difficult problem, is the American Red Cross. Up to the period of the World War, the Red Cross was very largely considered to be an organization whose purpose was to meet abnormal situations or catastrophes, including wars, pestilence, famine, floods, etc. In other words, it was looked upon as a great emergency organization with but few duties during peace times.

Since the war, however, the Red Cross has considered itself called upon to adopt an extensive peace time program, the most important activities of which are: Care of the disabled ex-service men; extension of public health nursing; disaster relief; Junior Red Cross at home and abroad. There has been some question as to whether the charter was granted by the Federal Government contains provisions for such an extensive program. Others declared that the Red Cross was competing too much with other welfare societies.

Judge Payne, the chairman, has clearly shown the attitude of his organization, when he said at the annual convention at Washington: "The American Red Cross is a semi-governmental national organization, called into being for emergency work, charged with the duty of doing emergency work, but required to take action to prevent disease and disaster. That's the platform. And the Red Cross has such a relation to our Government, that we are called upon to respond internationally, and the country would not be satisfied if the Red Cross was not prepared, in a big way, to respond internationally. So we must not lose sight of these great things by permitting the Red Cross to go into competition with the Associated Charities or any other charitable or health organization. But we do not mean that, if a situation confronts us that ought to be dealt with, that we can't deal with it. We cannot say that so and so must starve or go naked simply because the Red Cross has this large international task. In other words, we have to use our common sense."

The National organization does not, therefore wish to compete with existing social service organizations, but rather to do tasks that they are unable to perform. A situation that may cause some confusion is that a number of local chapters of the Red Cross have undertaken the organization of social service bureaus in their various localities. This occurred, however, when there was previously no well-organized society. The purpose was to utilize the fine organization built up during the war in a very practical manner locally. This plan was easier than forming an entirely new association to sponsor the establishment of a social service office. Another vital reason why local chapters established central offices after the war, was to give complete and prompt care to ex-service men and their families. In some places, this office organization formed the foundation on which central charity or welfare offices were begun.

In regard to its work for ex-service men, its chief work now, the chairman's report has the following: "The function of the Red Cross is not to usurp the Government's responsibilities, but to supplement official activity; harmoniously co-operate with official plans and methods; seek out the individual in his particular needs in the standardized mass; acquire and distribute information among the men and their families; acquaint the Veterans' Bureau with the personal equation in individual cases; prepare and furnish comforts, recreation, and the many secondary, but necessary, services which the Government, by its very nature, can procure only from volunteer assistance. These obligations and privileges fall primarily on the Red Cross chapters, whose volunteer members are kept acquainted with the official situation thru liaison Red Cross officers attached to the district offices of the Veterans' Bureau. Approximately ten million dollars of national and chapter Red Cross funds were expended in this service during the last fiscal year, and the budget for 1922-23 calls for three hundred and sixty-five thousand dollars more of the national funds than were expended last year."

"Few Americans outside active Red Cross chapter membership appreciate the magnitude of the problem of the disabled ex-service men, of whom there are now about 28,000. . . and, in the opinion of the Surgeon General of the Army, the peak will not be reached before 1926."

Space alone prevents us from describing the many other activities, such as nursing service, disaster relief, and the Junior Red Cross. A very noticeable trend in the administration of the Red Cross, is the curtailment of expenditures and the cutting of the budget for the next fiscal year from $12,475,847.69 to $9,739,872.47.

That the Chapter delegates of the society heartily endorse the executives, was shown at the great convention held in Washington, D. C., October 9 to 12. There were nearly 500 delegates, besides many friends, at the meetings, which were uniformly excellent. One could not but notice the vigorous, dynamic type of men and women who are responsible for the success of the Red Cross. This quality was always evident in the manner in which they asked and answered questions at their convention. Never has the writer heard more or better discussion at a convention than here. All were full of enthusiasm for the coming Roll Call, the annual drive for membership, to be begun on Armistice Day and end Thanksgiving Day. With such a group of energetic leaders, one cannot but feel certain that the Red Cross will continue to occupy its high place in the heart of humanity as one of the greatest symbols of service and self-sacrifice in the history of the world.

EDUCATION WEEK IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Special Programs Planned for Each Day Next Week Designated as "American Education Week"—Parents to Be Special
Guests of the Schools

Next week is "American Education Week," when in all the public schools of the country special emphasis will be laid upon various phases of national life. The local schools will observe the special week in an appropriate way, and a special effort will be made to have the parents of the children visit the schools during the week.

In order to avoid over-crowding, one-fifth of each class will invite their parents on Monday, another fifth on Tuesday and so on throughout the week. Monday is Constitution Day. Each teacher will spend from two to four 20-minute periods discussing the constitution of the United States. Copies of the constitution have been secured from the American Defense society for each teacher. Special programs will be put on at assembly times in the Junior and Senior High schools. Tuesday is Patriotic Day. On this day the teachers will present the history of the flag. Several leaflets relating to the history of the flag have been placed in each building.

Wednesday will be devoted to the responsibility of citizenship. A bulletin appearing elsewhere in the paper has been sent out from the office of the superintendent as suggestive material for this day.

No special work has been assigned for Thursday and Friday but it is expected that the topics for the first three days will prove too large for one day's discussion.

ALL FAT PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW THIS

Fat people owe a debt of gratitude to the author of the now famous Marmola Prescription, and are still more indebted for the reduction of this harmless, effective obesity remedy to tablet form. Marmola Prescription Tablets can be obtained at all drug stores the world over at the reasonable price of one dollar for a box or you can secure them direct on receipt of price from the Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. This now leaves no excuse for dieting or violent exercise for the reduction of the overfat body to normal.

and that the portion which appeals most to the individual teacher will be extended into these last two days. The high school will not be in session on Thursday and Friday because of the High School Conference held at the State university.

On Friday evening the Parent-Teacher Association of the Junior High school will have its November meeting. It is hoped that all parents and friends of the Junior High school will make a special effort to attend. An appropriate program will be put on by the students.

The following teacher's bulletin has been sent out from Supt. Shafer's office suggesting the emphasis for Wednesday of American Education Week:

"Governments are either set up under kings and autocrats, or the people themselves create their own government thru their chosen representatives. There can be no question whether or not government shall remain. The only question is what kind of government we shall have."

Ours, of course, is a government created by the people. But as the actual set up was made by our forefathers we the people who enjoy the liberties and privileges guaranteed to us and protected by this the greatest of all human documents, the Constitution of the United States of America, often overlook our responsibilities.

The preamble to the constitution reads as follows:

"We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution for the United States of America."

The first seven words of this preamble cannot be over-emphasized. In these words we find the responsibilities of citizenship. These words should be proclaimed in the ears of the fault finder who neglects to vote on election day, who neglects to keep himself informed as to the qualifications of office seekers, who fails to become intelligent with reference to matters of public concern, or who refuses or neglects to co-operate in the enforcement of law and order.

Questions

1. What is the difference in the way of responsibility between governments set up by kings and those set up by the people?
2. What kinds of governments were most common 300 years ago?
3. How would the fact that the people of the world lived under the rulership of kings for so many years affect their ability to respond to the responsibilities of citizenship in a democracy?
4. To what extent are the people of the United States and of Jacksonville negligent with respect to the things mentioned in the last paragraph?

KIWANIS TO BANQUET FOUR FOOTBALL TEAMS

Big Dinner Will Be Given Early in December—Scout Troop to Be Shown Good Time—Stickney Is District Chairman.

The annual football banquet at which the local Kiwanis club will entertain the four college and high school football teams of the city, will be held early in December, according to announcement made yesterday. Walter Eckersall, formerly quarterback on the University of Chicago team, and now football editor of the Chicago Tribune will deliver the address. Coach Stag of the University of Chicago was invited, but cannot be present.

Rev. G. E. Stickney who has charge of the organization of the Kiwanis Boy Scout troop, reported at the club meeting yesterday that the work is going forward in a satisfactory manner. The troop will soon be in proper form, and Henry Alexander will take charge as scout master. Each boy will choose a "big brother," or "daddy," from among the Kiwanis members. Plans are underway to take the boys to the football game on Illinois field Saturday, Nov. 24, which has been designated as Kiwanis Day at the college.

The club will also entertain its proteges soon at the Kiwanis cabin east of the city. The boys and their "brothers" will have supper at the camp and spend the night there, returning to the city in the morning. Another plan is to entertain the members of the troop at a regular Kiwanis luncheon at a not far distant date.

The annual International Kiwanis banquet will be held at the Midway Masonic Temple in Chicago at 6:30 o'clock on the evening of December 2. More than two thousand persons are expected to be in attendance. The presidents, secretaries and trustees of all clubs in the Illinois—Iowa district are expected to attend, and others will no doubt take advantage of the privilege. The ladies will be admitted to the banquet for the first time this year. A reception will be held at 5:30 P. M.

District Lieutenant Governor F. E. Farrell has appointed Rev. G. E. Stickney as chairman of the district boys' work committee and requested him to name the members of his committee, one from each club in the district.

The annual election of officers of the local club will be held at the next weekly meeting, in order to give the new officers time to organize the work for the coming year, and to attend the annual banquet in Chicago. The new officers will take their posts at the first meeting in January. The annual meeting of the local club will be held Dec. 27. At this time an inventory of the year's work will be taken, reports of committees heard, and plans made for future work.

The meeting yesterday was addressed by Senator Epler Mills of Virginia, who told of some of the work of the state senate and described the trials of a senator. He told of the necessity for judgment in the work of the senate, as many things are brought before that body which are not worth while.

RAILROAD EVANGELIST TO VISIT JACKSONVILLE
Many will remember as a boy James R. Smith, the son of Mrs. Kate Murdock Smith, who was the first graduate of the old Female Academy, and for years taught in the Woman's College. "Jim" left town many years ago and went into the railroad business. After his conversion he became an evangelist to railroad men, speaking probably to more railroad men than any other evangelist. In a tour covering twenty months, at the instance of Miss Helen Gould, he traveled 63,000 miles speaking in all parts of Canada and the United States.

He was at one time field secretary of the railroad department of the Y. M. C. A. and was in seventeen campaigns of the Men and Religion movement. "Railroad Jim" will speak at the Woman's College next Saturday morning, at State Street Sunday school Sunday morning and then at Northminster church service at 10:45. In the evening he will speak at Westminister church, following a moving picture upon "The Passion of Christ."

At present Mr. Smith is a missionary under the Presbyterian Board of National Missions among the Navajos in Arizona.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE IN LOCAL STORES
The cases in T. M. Tomlinson's clothing store were being shifted to new positions yesterday to make room for the installation of a dressing room and a tripple mirror. It is also intended to secure additional room for stock by the change.

Armstrong's East state street drug store is being redecorated and improved by the addition of new cases and other furnishings. The improvements will add considerably to the attractiveness of the store.

DR. REINHARDT MADE STRONG ADDRESS HERE

President of American Association of University Women Addressed Members of Local Branch Yesterday Afternoon at Academy Hall.

The meeting of the American Association of the University Women held at Academy Hall Thursday afternoon was well attended despite the inclemency of the weather. The President of the local branch, Mrs. J. C. Grout of Winchester presided and introduced the speaker, Dr. Amelia H. Reinhardt and the Association and its guests had a real treat in listening to Dr. Reinhardt as she rapidly sketched the inception, organization, development and ideals of the association she has the honor to represent as its national president.

After greetings she spoke of the trend of education and said that the ideals of many predecessors were being realized today and that their efforts would not be in vain, and their work having been worth while, and mentioned that the dignity and charm of the life of the city is because of the colleges having contributed their share to the community, but that the colleges needed the cooperation of the citizens outside the walls. The association is fifty years old and has done its work during the years without ostentation or much publicity, but the ideals of the thirteen women who pledged themselves "to do every month and every year something to help in education, particularly for women" had created a standard to which the association still was pledged and which standard is being maintained.

She spoke of Alice Freeman Palmer and Helen Richards early pioneers in education would be gratified at the treatment accorded educated women by the universities and colleges of today, and how much it would have meant to Helen Richards to see the college and universities bestowing honor on Madame Curie when the early days only snubbing was bestowed upon the woman who designed to take an interest in chemistry or other sciences.

A very interesting review was given of the National convention held the past summer at Portland, and the story of the home now in Washington was interesting and humorously told. Dr. Reinhardt interspersed her discourse with an elusive humor very delightful to her audience. At the Portland convention about 500 women assembled from 100 to 250 branches, which comprise a membership of about 15,000 women having college or university degrees.

The main point however of the discourse was the thought that the Association should foster a friendly international understanding among women of the world and that the women of foreign countries should know that the American truth is the foreign women's truth, the high ideal of the one is the high ideal of the other. She mentioned the number of foreign students she had in Mills College (of which she is president) and also the foreign members of her faculty, explaining that the relationship brought about a better international feeling and a broadening and was altogether an influence for right. She spoke of America's and the world's need as being to teach the youth the international idea in which lies the solution of international misunderstanding.

During her remarks she mentioned that women were in and on the front row, and that they are doing things, too, but that there must be a time for the individual to prove her capacity. She spoke of education being that which elevates the mind and spirit into higher ideals and better living, and that was the real value of colleges and universities.

The association at the conclusion of the program entertained their members and guests with a delightful tea.

FINANCE COMMITTEE OF S. S. L. REPORTS

The finance committee of the Social Service League has recently made a report, indicating that $2,058 had been collected during the recent canvass for the support of the league.

The amount determined as necessary in order to carry on the work of the league for the coming year is $3,000. The committee in looking over the names of former subscribers notes that many of them have not contributed this year. In most cases this is because these people were out of town when the canvassers called, and due to the further fact that some of the canvassers failed to complete their lists.

Dr. Grace Dewey is the chairman of the committee, and any persons who have not contributed this year and desire to do so may send their money to her. The committee will be grateful for any such voluntary contributions.

FAMOUS HORSE DIES IN GREENE COUNTY

Carnot, Undeclared Grand Champion Percheron Stallion, Died at Age of 19 Years—Was Property of W. S. Corsa and Indiana Man.

White Hall, Nov. 15.—Carnot, the undefeated grand champion Percheron stallion of France and America and the greatest horse of the draft type of his time, is dead. Carnot was imported in 1909 when four years old, with a continuation of his record of victories at the world's leading shows, and at the international show in Chicago in that year became the property of W. S. Corsa of White Hall for $10,000. In 1916 Mr. Corsa sold a half interest in Carnot to R. G. Leeds of Richmond, Indiana, and since that time Carnot was referred to as the $50,000 Percheron. Mr. Leeds stipulated that in the event of the death of Carnot, he retained the privilege of mounting him. This provision, however, will not be carried out, and the remains will repose on Gregory Farm. The get of Carnot won first honors at the international for ten consecutive years, from 1912 to 1921, inclusive, a greater record than any other sire in the world, and he outlived all his competitors, being nearly 19 years of age when he died.

TITLE CHANCES AT STAKE SATURDAY

Michigan Meets Wisconsin in Most Important Game—Iowa Will Battle Strong Minnesota Team

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Old scores as well as title chances are to be settled on Western Conference gridirons Saturday.

Wisconsin has its last year's defeat and past similar experiences to retrieve in its game with Michigan. Chicago settles its differences with Ohio and Minnesota will meet its ancient foe, Iowa. Northwestern hopes to use Purdue as a stepping stone out of the Big Ten cellar.

The Wisconsin eleven has spent the week priming a previously ineffective offense. Reports from Ann Arbor tell of Michigan's strength despite the loss of Uteritz.

The Buckeyes report that Klee, their fast halfback, again will be in the game. Coach Stagg of Chicago is not under-rating the Ohio eleven, despite its early reverses. Minnesota determined to break the string of consecutive Iowa victories of the last five years.

Both teams are on edge. At Northwestern Coach Thistlethwaite has declared he is tired of "unlucky defeats" and is determined to make up for some of the losses by a victory over Purdue. Illinois is scheduled for a non-conference game with the Mississippi Aggies.

KNOX MEETS LOMBARD IN IMPORTANT GAME

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Caleburg is to have a football contest all its own Friday that townsmen are looking forward to with eager expectation.

Knox college meets Lombard in a contest that gives indications of being a bitter clash.

Both teams are strong, Lombard suffering its only defeat to Notre Dame 10 to 0.

MISSISSIPPI ENROUTE FOR ILLINOIS GAME

While Coach Earl Abell's Mississippi A. and M. squad is enroute to the Illinois stadium, Illinois partisans are arranging a final demonstration in honor of Bob Zuppke's great eleven. Saturday is the last chance to see the Orange and Blue machine in action on the home grounds and football fans from near and far will be there.

The Illini will be surprised if they do not defeat the invaders from Dixie—in fact the Starkville lads have a great chance to spring a surprise. Rooters do look for a brisk game with the visitors fighting hard in accordance with the reputation with precedes them from the south.

The Illinois band will march and play and the Illini will do especial honor to Capt. Jim McMillen and Viv Green, two regulars who play their valetory games at home. Bunny Oakes, sub tackle, is another senior, who hankers for a chance. All the Illini reserves hope that Illinois will demonstrate its superiority quickly so that they will be called upon. While "Zup" will certainly try to win the game without damage to his players, at the same time he wants to have a workout that will keep the machine well oiled for the Ohio battle.

If Mississippi throws a lot of passes, as is predicted, that is just what Zuppke wants for the Illini well know that they will have to break up aerial fusillade at Columbus next week. The southerners were strong enough defensively to hold Vanderbilt scoreless. If their defense is adequate, the Illini may have to make recourse to passing and Zuppke will like that. The Illini have not had to do any passing since Iowa and he wants to see them throwing the ball.

Paul Jenks will get another chance at halfback. He has been speed but needs training to follow interference. Follet will likely be used at end.

The "sure cure," cough drops at Merrigan's.

I. C. SQUAD TO MEET WESLEYAN TOMORROW

Local Eleven in Excellent Shape for Big Homecoming Game at Bloomington—Special Train to Be Run Tomorrow Morning

When the Illinois college eleven and their friends journey to Bloomington Saturday they will be present at one of the most notable homecomings in the history of the college according to word received here from that city.

"Bill" Zwanig, general chairman of the homecoming affair stated that more money had been spent to make this celebration a success than ever before in Wesleyan's history. Business houses and private houses will be decorated for the occasion with Wesleyan colors of green and white and Illinois colors of blue and white.

The Wesleyan squad has been put thru some of the most strenuous workouts of the season, by Coach Cartwright in preparation for Saturday's game. That the Methodists expect a real battle is evident from the following article which appears in the sport section of The Daily Pantagraph of that city.

"Cartwright is not taking any chances on the Illinois college game, for in spite of the fact that the Jacksonville eleven has a very mediocre record this year Harmon's team have a habit of arising to unbelievable heights when playing against Wesleyan, and he wants to be prepared for anything, and avenge that defeat of a year ago."

That Coach Harmon expects to make the Wesleyan squad work for anything they may get is evident by the drilling he has been putting his men thru this week. The local eleven is in better physical condition than they have been in several weeks and with Fogleman and Shields ready to step into the harness after being out on account of scholastic difficulties, we believe Cartwright is using good judgment in being prepared for anything. Harmon will take his entire squad which consists of practically three teams.

A telephone call was received yesterday at the college from Bloomington asking that the Illinois college band which expects to make the trip and the local rooters march in the parade which takes place at 12 o'clock noon.

Arrangements have been made for a special train out of the city to the game which will leave here at 8 o'clock a. m. Saturday, arriving in Bloomington about 10:30 and leaving there about 7:30 o'clock p. m. Over 200 tickets have been sold for this train which will carry five coaches and a baggage car, the latter of which may be used for dancing on the trip. The fare for the trip is $3.25 and anyone wishing to go may go at this special rate. Tickets for the game may be procured from Manager Tom Smith, which are also being disposed of at a special rate. Arrangements have been made whereby the Jacksonville fans may be seated together.

SOUTHERNERS KEYED FOR STADIUM BATTLE

URBANA, Ill., Nov. 15.—Mississippi A. & M. college is keyed to its highest pitch for its battle against Illinois in the stadium Saturday.

The southerners realize that they are booked to play an underdog role but they also figure a great advantage in that the Illini look to the Ohio game next week and are not likely to take them over seriously.

These are the reports from Starkville, Miss., as Coach Earl Abell prepares to entrain his squad. Nothing has given the Aggies as much confidence as the fact that they were able to hold Vanderbilt to a scoreless tie. They recall that the Commodores in turn held Michigan to a field goal and this comparison encourages them greatly.

Coach Abell, formerly a Colgate star, is coaching his first year at Starkville where he has made good in general opinion. If his team can hold the Illini, it will make him famous nationally and he has worked day and night this week to perfect the Mississippi attack and defense.

Ernest Bear, who scouted the Aggies at Starkville last week, when they defeated Union college, looks for a rain of forward passes. The Bulldogs have two good passers in Barnett and Young and they realize that their main hope to beat the Illini must be by the overhead route.

Illinois, after a rest, is being tapered up gradually for the Ohio game. Zuppke must take his chances that the Aggies can be repulsed and all the talk on Illinois field this week of the Buckeyes, although the team has been instructed in the Mississippi attack.

The Illini look for the biggest crowd of the season for a non-conference game, which means more than 10,000. There will be plenty of seats for last minute arrivals, as a matter of course, and a sunny day will start a flock of motor cars from all over Illinois and Indiana. In a sense the game is a "bargain" as admission has been reduced to $1.50.

LARGE CROWD WILL FOLLOW IOWA TEAM

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 15.—Twenty-eight men besides the coaching staff, will leave here tomorrow night on a special train for Minneapolis where the Iowa University football team meets the Gophers for the Minnesota homecoming game.

One thousand rooters will accompany the squad on the special train which will return to Iowa City Saturday evening. Coach Howard H. Jones, put his squad thru a final scrimmage tonight and the regulars showed a smooth, polished offense while their defense against the Minnesota plays used by the third string held the plays for no gains consistently.

Louis Perbix of Markham was a Jacksonville visitor Thursday.

Sale of other seats have been slow, since there are no reserved seats, but a crowd of 20,000 is expected for the game, the first inter-sectional battle here since Illinois played Colgate in 1916.

Coach Bob Zuppke sent his varsity thru the last scrimmage of the week tonight, the freshmen running plays again. Castle, yearling end, grabbed a bunch of passes for gains on the regulars, but the youngsters were unable to advance consistently. Roberts, sub-center, got in place of Green.

One More Button

Men like the sixth button on the front of an Eagle Shirt. Way down, it keeps the front closed below the belt so the front's closed above.

These six buttons stay on. 50% more stitches than you find holding most buttons—that does the trick.

Just two reasons why men prefer Eagle Shirts.

YOU PROMISED ME BEFORE I LEFT LAST WEEK THAT YOU'D STICK CLOSE AT HOME AND NOT RUN AROUND WITH THE BOYS. BUT ON COMING BACK I FIND YOU WERE NOT HOME AT ALL!

WHO IN THE WORLD TOLD YOU THAT?

WHO TOLD ME!!! I HAVE EYES!! YOUR BED IS MADE EXACTLY AS I LEFT IT, AND THERE ARE NO DIRTY DISHES STACKED UP IN THE SINK!!!

I GUESS THAT EVERY CROOK OVERLOOKS SOME LITTLE DETAIL THAT LINKS HIM UP WITH THE CRIME.

Baffle "Old Man Winter"

He exacts a heavy toll from automobiles. His favorite plan of attack is to prevent the forces of lubrication from functioning.

His success or failure depends entirely upon the quality of lubricating oil that you use. If you use inferior oil you can't beat him; your car will be hard to start; batteries and starter will be strained severely; the frictional and bearing surfaces of your car may lock; you will be wasting power because your pistons are not sealed—but if you

Use

Polarine

THE PERFECT MOTOR OIL

Made in Five Grades

then you will have every frictional surface covered with a cushion of oil.

Your car will start readily, especially so if you use Red Crown Gasoline.

You will have power and you will not waste any, for Polarine seals your pistons against loss of power.

Polarine is designed to render a superior service—it flows freely at extremes of temperature—it has the correct viscosity—it will not break down—it will function always.

Consult chart on the left for the correct grade of Polarine for your car.

Drain your crank case every five hundred miles and refill with Polarine—it is the essence of economy.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

MARKET SHOWING A REACTIONARY TREND

FINANCIAL
Total stock sales $56,200
shares.
Twenty industrials averaged 90.87; net gain .46.
High 1923: 105.38; low
85.76.
Twenty railroads averaged $3.46; net loss .21.
High 1923: 90.51; low
79.53.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Resumption of the forward movement in the industrials and the development of a reactionary tendency by the rails characterized today's session of the stock market. Speculators for the advance
continued to encounter resistance in various sections of the industrial list but a seizing of the short interest in some of the issues resulted in some gains in that group.

Foreign exchanges continued to yield to the disquieting foreign political news, but most observers were agreed that the stock market moved in seeming indifference to cable dispatches.

Oil shares were helped by the report of the American Petroleum institute of a further reduction in crude oil production for the week ending November 10.
Considerable profit-taking took place in the low-priced rails which have been strong recently, but recessions, as a rule, were held to fractions. Postponement of the dividend meeting on Chesapeake & Ohio were held responsible for the point recession in that stock.

Bond prices on the whole were steady today with a broadening
of the variety of issues in wheat transaction.

Total bond sales par value $11,
655,000.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK

ured steers 12.00, weight around 1250 pounds; best long yearlings

fed weighty steers 8.75 to 9.50;
she stock mostly lower grade kind fully steady; bulls steady to
